

POSITIVIST

Meaning: Positivist: a person who advocates for the theory that knowledge is based on empirical evidence and observable phenomena, often utilizing scientific methods.

1. The positivist approach emphasizes observable phenomena and empirical evidence.
2. As a positivist, she believed that knowledge should be derived from scientific methods.
3. Many critics argue that the positivist perspective overlooks subjective human experiences.
4. He adopted a positivist philosophy in his research, focusing solely on quantifiable data.
5. The positivist movement significantly influenced the development of modern sociology and psychology.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/positivist>