

POSSESSIVE

Meaning: Possessive refers to a tendency to dominate or control relationships, as well as a grammatical form indicating ownership.

1. Her possessive nature often created tension in her friendships.
2. The possessive form of nouns shows ownership, as in "the cat's toy."
3. He had a possessive attitude towards his belongings, refusing to share with anyone.
4. In relationships, a possessive partner can lead to feelings of suffocation.
5. The artist's possessive style made her work instantly recognizable and unique.
6. Her possessive nature often led to conflicts in her relationships.
7. The possessive form of nouns indicates ownership or association.
8. He spoke in a possessive tone, making it clear how much he cared.
9. Some cultures have a more pronounced sense of possessive relationships than others.
10. Children can sometimes exhibit possessive behavior over their toys and belongings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/possessive>