

POSSESSIVELY

Meaning: Possessively: in a manner that indicates ownership or a strong desire to keep something for oneself, often to the exclusion of others.

1. She held the puppy possessively, unwilling to let anyone else hold it.
2. He spoke possessively about his collection of rare coins, proud of his unique finds.
3. The mother watched her child play possessively, ready to intervene at the slightest sign of trouble.
4. They clasped hands possessively, as if afraid to let go in the crowded room.
5. With a possessively raised eyebrow, she questioned his intentions toward her best friend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/possessively>