

POST

Meaning: To publish or share content online, such as artwork or information, for public viewing or access.

1. She decided to post her artwork on social media to share it with a wider audience.
2. After the meeting, he made sure to post the minutes on the company's internal website.
3. They arranged to post the package by express delivery to ensure it arrived on time.
4. The blog post received numerous comments and sparked an engaging discussion among readers.
5. She was excited to receive a letter in the mail, as it was rare to get personal posts these days.
6. Please remember to post your application by the deadline.
7. She decided to post a picture of her vacation on social media.
8. The company will post updates about the project on their website.
9. He received a letter in the post that made his day brighter.
10. After the meeting, I will post the minutes for everyone to review.
11. I forgot to post the letter before the mailbox was emptied.
12. After the meeting, she made sure to post the minutes online for everyone to review.
13. He decided to post his artwork on social media to reach a wider audience.
14. The chef was excited to post a video of her latest recipe on her blog.
15. You can easily post your opinion in the comments section of the article.
16. I need to post the package before the deadline tomorrow.
17. After the meeting, she decided to post her thoughts on social media.
18. He found a letter in the post that he had been waiting for months.
19. They agreed to post the updates on the project every Friday.
20. Please remember to post your application by the end of the week.
21. After the meeting, he made sure to post the minutes in the team's shared folder.

22. The package will post from the local distribution center and should arrive by Friday.
23. They plan to post updates about the event on their website as more details become available.
24. In her letter, she included a small photograph to post alongside her message.
25. She decided to post her artwork online to reach a wider audience.
26. After the meeting, he made sure to post the minutes on the company intranet.
27. The post arrived late, causing her to worry about the important documents inside.
28. He plans to post a video update on his travel blog every week.
29. The community center will post a new schedule of events next month.
30. She decided to post her artwork online to share with a wider audience.
31. The letter took longer to arrive than expected after being sent via post.
32. After the meeting, he needed to post the minutes on the company's website.
33. They agreed to post updates on social media to keep everyone informed about the event.
34. I will post the package at the nearest shipping center tomorrow morning.
35. I decided to post my travel photos on social media to share my adventures with friends.
36. After the meeting, I will post the minutes on the company intranet for everyone to review.
37. Please remember to post your application before the deadline to be considered for the position.
38. The librarian asked me to post the notice about the upcoming book sale on the bulletin board.
39. You can post your comments below the article to join the discussion with other readers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/post>