

POSTMASTERSHIP

Meaning: Postmastership is the position or office of a postmaster, responsible for overseeing the operations of a post office.

1. The postmastership in our small town has been held by the same family for generations.
2. She aspired to achieve postmastership after years of dedicated service at the local post office.
3. His knowledge of postal regulations made him an ideal candidate for postmastership.
4. The responsibilities of postmastership include overseeing mail delivery and managing staff.
5. After securing the postmastership, she implemented several improvements to the postal service.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/postmastership>