

POSTPONE

Meaning: To delay or reschedule an event or action to a later time or date.

1. We decided to postpone the meeting until next week to accommodate everyone's schedules.
2. Due to the unexpected storm, the outdoor concert was postponed until later this month.
3. She requested to postpone her flight until she could finalize her travel plans.
4. The company chose to postpone the product launch to ensure all features were fully tested.
5. After discussing it with the team, we agreed to postpone the project deadline by two weeks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/postpone>