

POSTPONEMENT

Meaning: Postponement refers to the act of delaying or rescheduling an event or activity to a later time.

1. The postponement of the concert caused disappointment among the fans.
2. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the meeting has been scheduled for a postponement.
3. She expressed her frustration over the repeated postponement of the project deadline.
4. The postponement of the election raised concerns about voter engagement.
5. After much discussion, they agreed that a postponement was necessary for better planning.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/postponement>