

POSTPONER

Meaning: POSTPONER (verb): to delay or reschedule an event or meeting to a later time or date.

1. We had to POSTPONER the meeting due to unforeseen circumstances.
2. The concert was POSTPONER to next month because of bad weather.
3. They decided to POSTPONER the project deadline to ensure better quality.
4. After much discussion, the committee chose to POSTPONER the vote until next week.
5. She had to POSTPONER her vacation plans because of work commitments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/postponer>