

POSTPOSE

Meaning: Postpone: to delay or defer an event or action to a later time.

1. We decided to postpone the meeting until next week to accommodate everyone's schedule.
2. The team chose to postpone the project launch due to unforeseen circumstances.
3. After much deliberation, they agreed to postpone the event until the weather improves.
4. She asked if they could postpone their vacation plans until after the promotion was announced.
5. The committee voted to postpone the deadline for submissions to give participants more time.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/postpose>