

POSTULANT

Meaning: Postulant: a person who is being considered for admission to a religious community, typically undergoing a period of evaluation and preparation.

1. The postulant eagerly prepared for the rigorous interview process at the monastery.
2. As a postulant, she was expected to demonstrate her commitment to the community's values.
3. During the retreat, the postulants engaged in deep reflection and shared their personal journeys.
4. The elder spoke highly of the new postulant, noting her dedication and spiritual insight.
5. It was a significant step for him to become a postulant, marking the beginning of his spiritual journey.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/postulant>