

POTLID

Meaning: A potlid is a cover designed to fit over a cooking pot to retain heat and prevent spills while cooking.

1. The potlid clanged against the pot as she stirred the simmering soup.
2. He struggled to find the right potlid that fit his grandmother's old cookware.
3. With a quick twist, she removed the potlid to reveal the steaming vegetables inside.
4. The chef carefully placed the potlid back on to trap the flavors while cooking.
5. After searching the kitchen, he finally discovered the missing potlid behind the spices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/potlid>