

POUCHED

Meaning: POUCHED: to have concealed or stored something, often in a pocket or similar space.

1. The thief had pouched the stolen jewelry before fleeing the scene.
2. During our hike, we discovered a rare bird that had pouched its young in a mossy nook.
3. The artist pouched the vibrant paints in small containers for easy transport.
4. She pouched the last piece of chocolate cake, saving it for later.
5. In the wildlife reserve, we observed a kangaroo pouched its baby snugly as it hopped along.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pouched>