

POULTER

Meaning: A poulter is a person who sells or prepares poultry and game for consumption.

1. The skilled poulter prepared an exquisite roast duck for the dinner party.
2. In medieval times, a poulter was essential for supplying fresh game to the nobility.
3. She decided to open a poulter's shop to offer locally sourced poultry to her community.
4. The poulter carefully selected the finest birds to showcase at the market.
5. After years in the business, he earned a reputation as the best poulter in town.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poulter>