

POUNCE

Meaning: Pounce: to spring or leap suddenly in order to seize or attack something or someone.

1. The cat waited patiently, ready to pounce on the unsuspecting mouse.
2. During the game of hide and seek, the children would pounce out from their hiding spots to surprise their friends.
3. She saw her chance to pounce on the opportunity and quickly submitted her proposal.
4. As the sun set, the predator prepared to pounce on its prey lurking in the shadows.
5. He was always looking for a chance to pounce on any weakness in his opponent's argument.
6. The cat waited silently, ready to pounce on the unsuspecting mouse.
7. As the door creaked open, she felt a rush of excitement, knowing he would pounce on the opportunity.
8. With a swift leap, the athlete pounced to catch the ball just before it hit the ground.
9. The detective was careful not to pounce on assumptions without clear evidence.
10. Children often pounce on the chance to explore new adventures during the summer break.
11. As soon as the opportunity arose, she decided to pounce and take advantage of the situation.
12. Children often pounce on the chance to play outside when the sun comes out.
13. He was determined to pounce on any errors in the report before submitting it.
14. The athlete's quick reflexes allowed him to pounce on the ball before anyone else could react.
15. The cat was ready to pounce on the unsuspecting mouse.
16. As soon as the ball was thrown, the dog pounced excitedly after it.
17. She planned to pounce on the opportunity as soon as it arose.
18. The detective seemed to pounce on every clue with remarkable insight.
19. With a swift motion, the athlete pounced on the loose ball and scored a goal.
20. The cat waited patiently in the bushes, ready to pounce on the unsuspecting bird.
21. He was determined to pounce on the opportunity for a promotion as soon as it arose.

22. The toddler watched in delight as the puppy would pounce playfully on its favorite toy.
23. With a swift motion, she decided to pounce on her chance to speak at the conference.
24. As the enemy troops advanced, the soldiers prepared to pounce at the right moment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pounce>