

POUNCED

Meaning: POUNCED: to leap or spring suddenly in order to seize or attack something.

1. The cat pounced on the unsuspecting mouse, catching it off guard.
2. As the ball rolled away, the dog eagerly pounced to retrieve it.
3. With a sudden burst of energy, the athlete pounced on the opportunity to score.
4. The children pounced into the pile of leaves, laughing and squealing with delight.
5. When the door opened, the excited puppy pounced into the living room, ready to play.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pounced>