

POUNDAGE

Meaning: Poundage refers to the weight of an object or substance measured in pounds.

1. The poundage of the package exceeded the postal limit, requiring an additional fee.
2. She carefully calculated the poundage of each ingredient before starting the recipe.
3. In the fitness competition, athletes were categorized by poundage to ensure fair comparisons.
4. The shipping company offers discounts on bulk shipments based on total poundage.
5. He was surprised to learn that the poundage of his luggage was just under the airline's weight restriction.
6. The poundage of the shipment exceeded the weight limit set by the carrier.
7. She was surprised to learn that the poundage of her luggage would result in extra fees.
8. The fisherman carefully recorded the poundage of his catch for the local competition.
9. Understanding the poundage of different ingredients is crucial for precise baking.
10. The gym has a strict policy on the poundage that can be lifted in the weight room.
11. The poundage of the shipment exceeded the maximum limit set by the carrier.
12. She was surprised by the poundage of the ingredients needed for the recipe.
13. To calculate the total cost, we need to know the poundage of the items being shipped.
14. The poundage of the luggage was carefully weighed at the airport check-in.
15. He was concerned about the poundage on his home gym equipment after a long hiatus from working out.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poundage>