

POUNDER

Meaning: Pounder: a tool or person that exerts force to crush or compress substances, often used in cooking or fitness contexts.

1. The heavy pounder was used to crush the spices into a fine powder.
2. He felt like a real pounder in the gym, pushing through the last few reps with determination.
3. During the competition, she showcased her skills as a powerful pounder in the weightlifting category.
4. The chef preferred using a traditional pounder rather than a food processor for a more authentic texture.
5. As the waves crashed against the shore, the sound of the pounder echoed in the distance, creating a rhythmic melody.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pounder>