

POUNDKEEPER

Meaning: Poundkeeper: a person responsible for the care and management of animals in a pound or animal shelter.

1. The poundkeeper carefully tended to the animals, ensuring they received proper care and attention.
2. After the stray dogs were captured, they were taken to the local shelter, where the poundkeeper would assess their health.
3. In the small town, the poundkeeper was known for his kindness towards the animals that came through his facility.
4. The duties of a poundkeeper include managing the intake of lost pets and facilitating adoptions.
5. Community members often volunteered at the shelter, supporting the poundkeeper in her mission to find homes for abandoned animals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poundkeeper>