

POUT

Meaning: To pout means to display displeasure or sulk by pushing out one's lips and adopting a sullen expression.

1. She couldn't help but pout when she saw her friends heading out without her.
2. After losing the game, he sat in the corner and pouted like a child.
3. The little girl decided to pout when her mother said it was time to leave the playground.
4. Her lips formed a cute pout as she tried to negotiate for an extra dessert.
5. He pouted dramatically, hoping it would melt her heart and change her mind.
6. She pouted when she realized she couldn't go to the party.
7. The child pouted, crossing her arms in frustration.
8. He tried to cheer her up, but she just pouted in response.
9. As he spoke, she noticed his lips forming a slight pout.
10. After losing the game, he walked away with a noticeable pout on his face.
11. She decided to pout when she didn't get her favorite dessert.
12. The toddler let out a dramatic pout when her toy was taken away.
13. After losing the game, he crossed his arms and wore a deep pout.
14. She tried to hide her disappointment, but her lips formed a noticeable pout.
15. His pout was so exaggerated that it made everyone around him laugh.
16. She crossed her arms and pouted when she didn't get her way.
17. The child began to pout, making it clear she was unhappy with her dessert choice.
18. He tried to hide his disappointment, but the slight pout on his lips gave him away.
19. After losing the game, she sat on the bench with a deep pout, clearly frustrated.
20. To tease him, she pouted and exaggerated her disappointment about not getting the last piece of cake.
21. She pouted when she didn't get her way at the party.

22. The child pouted, crossing her arms in defiance.
23. He tried to hide his disappointment, but a slight pout formed on his lips.
24. After the argument, she sat on the sofa with a deep pout, refusing to speak.
25. To playfully tease him, she stuck out her lower lip in a dramatic pout.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pout>