

POUTINGLY

Meaning: POUTINGLY: In a manner that expresses sulkiness or displeasure, often characterized by a protruding lip or a sullen demeanor.

1. She looked at him poutingly, her lips pressed together in a silent protest.
2. The child sat on the floor poutingly, crossing her arms in frustration.
3. He poutingly refused to join the group, sulking in the corner instead.
4. After the argument, she turned away poutingly, her expression a mix of anger and disappointment.
5. He delivered his complaint poutingly, hoping to elicit sympathy from his friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/poutingly>