

PREACH

Meaning: To preach means to deliver a religious or moral message, often with the intent of inspiring or instructing others.

1. He decided to preach about compassion during the Sunday service.
2. The coach used the opportunity to preach teamwork and dedication to his players.
3. Many people find it inspiring when leaders preach about honesty and integrity.
4. She often takes to social media to preach her views on environmental conservation.
5. The old man would sit on the park bench and preach to anyone who would listen.
6. She decided to preach about the importance of compassion during the community gathering.
7. The pastor's ability to preach with such passion moved many in the congregation to tears.
8. He often preached the value of hard work and perseverance to his students.
9. During the rally, activists took the stage to preach their vision for a better future.
10. Her experience allowed her to preach not just theory, but practical solutions to real-world problems.
11. He decided to preach about compassion and understanding during Sunday service.
12. The teacher would often preach the importance of perseverance to her students.
13. She took to social media to preach her views on environmental conservation.
14. During the debate, he began to preach the need for unity among different communities.
15. The pastor's ability to preach with passion inspired many in the congregation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preach>