

PREADMONITION

Meaning: Premonition: a strong feeling or intuition about a future event, often indicating that something significant is about to occur.

1. She felt a strong premonition that something important was about to happen.
2. His premonition about the storm proved to be true when the skies darkened unexpectedly.
3. Despite her premonition, she decided to go ahead with the trip.
4. The sudden premonition of danger made him reconsider his next step.
5. After experiencing a vivid premonition, she warned her friends to be cautious.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preadmonition>