

PREANNOUNCE

Meaning: To preannounce means to announce or disclose information in advance of its official release or presentation.

1. The company decided to preannounce their new product line to generate excitement among consumers.
2. In an effort to keep shareholders informed, the CEO chose to preannounce the quarterly earnings report.
3. The event organizers will preannounce the keynote speakers to attract more attendees.
4. To maintain transparency, the government plans to preannounce any policy changes ahead of time.
5. Her team was instructed to preannounce the launch date to ensure everyone was prepared for the rollout.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preannounce>