PRECIPITANTLY

Meaning: PRECIPITANTLY: adverb meaning in a hasty or rash manner, often without careful consideration.

1. She made her decision precipitantly, without considering the long-term consequences.
2. The company acted precipitantly, launching the new product before resolving critical issues.
3. His precipitantly spoken words left everyone in the room stunned and uncertain.
4. They precipitantly left the meeting, fearing they might miss their flight.
5. The storm approached precipitantly, catching the hikers off guard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/precipitantly