

PRECIPITATED

Meaning: 'Precipitated' means to cause something to happen suddenly or unexpectedly.

1. The sudden influx of cold air precipitated a dramatic drop in temperature overnight.
2. Her careless comments precipitated a heated argument among the team members.
3. The government decision precipitated widespread protests across the country.
4. The financial crisis precipitated significant changes in banking regulations.
5. A series of unfortunate events precipitated the collapse of the once-thriving business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/precipitated>