

PRECIPITATOR

Meaning: A precipitator is a substance or agent that causes or accelerates a chemical reaction or process, often leading to the formation of a precipitate or an increase in a specific phenomenon.

1. The scientist identified the new chemical compound as a strong precipitator in the reaction.
2. In environmental studies, certain pollutants act as a precipitator for harmful algal blooms in waterways.
3. The unexpected rain served as a natural precipitator, leading to the rapid growth of wildflowers in the desert.
4. As a precipitator of change, her innovative ideas transformed the company's approach to sustainability.
5. The addition of the salt solution acted as a precipitator, resulting in the formation of visible crystals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/precipitator>