

PRECIPITOUS

Meaning: PRECIPITOUS: steep or dangerously high; characterized by a sudden or rash action.

1. The hikers carefully navigated the precipitious cliffs, aware of the danger below.
2. Her decision to invest all her savings in the failing company seemed as precipitious as it was reckless.
3. The road wound along the edge of a precipitious drop, offering breathtaking views of the valley.
4. His precipitious decline in health took everyone by surprise, leaving friends and family scrambling for answers.
5. In her haste to finish the project, she made a precipitious choice that ultimately jeopardized its success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/precipitous>