

PRECLUSIVE

Meaning: Preclusive: serving to prevent or hinder something from occurring or being achieved.

1. The preclusive nature of the contract prevented any further negotiations between the parties.
2. Their preclusive approach to sharing information hindered collaboration and innovation within the team.
3. The law was designed to have preclusive effects, ensuring that once a case was decided, it could not be reopened.
4. His preclusive attitude toward dissenting opinions stifled meaningful dialogue in the discussion.
5. The preclusive clause in the agreement barred any related claims from being pursued in the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preclusive>