

PREDATION

Meaning: Predation is the ecological process by which one organism hunts and consumes another organism, influencing population dynamics within ecosystems.

1. Predation is a fundamental ecological process that regulates population sizes in various species.
2. The documentary highlighted the intricate balance between predation and prey survival in the wild.
3. Scientists study predation patterns to understand how environmental changes affect food webs.
4. In the fierce competition for survival, predation often determines which species thrive and which decline.
5. The impact of predation on small mammals can lead to significant changes in their behavior and habitat use.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predation>