

PREDESTINARIANISM

Meaning: Predestinarianism is the doctrine that all events, including human actions, are predetermined by a divine power.

1. Predestinarianism suggests that every event in life is predetermined by a divine power.
2. Many philosophers have debated the implications of predestinarianism on human free will.
3. In the context of predestinarianism, the concept of fate often intersects with religious beliefs.
4. Critics of predestinarianism argue that it undermines the value of personal responsibility.
5. The influence of predestinarianism can be seen in various theological discussions throughout history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predestinarianism>