

PREDETERMINABLE

Meaning: Predeterminable: capable of being determined or established in advance.

1. The outcome of the experiment was predetermined, making it feel almost predeterminedable.
2. In a world governed by chaos, some outcomes seem entirely predeterminedable despite our best efforts.
3. Philosophers often debate whether human destiny is truly predeterminedable or shaped by free will.
4. The notion that all events are predeterminedable challenges our understanding of personal agency.
5. Scientific theories often hinge on whether certain variables are predeterminedable or subject to random chance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predeterminable>