

PREDICANT

Meaning: PREDICANT: A person who delivers a sermon or speaks publicly, often on moral or religious topics.

1. The predicant delivered a thought-provoking sermon that resonated with the congregation.
2. In the debate, the predicant argued passionately for social justice and equality.
3. As a predicant, she emphasized the importance of compassion in her teachings.
4. The predicant's eloquence captivated the audience, drawing them into a deeper understanding of faith.
5. Many sought the guidance of the predicant during times of personal crisis and uncertainty.
6. The predicant of the sermon captivated the congregation with his passionate delivery.
7. In his essay, he discussed the role of the predicant in shaping moral values within a community.
8. The predicant often shared personal anecdotes to connect with his audience on a deeper level.
9. Her training as a predicant prepared her to engage effectively with various social issues.
10. During the conference, the predicant emphasized the importance of compassion and understanding in discourse.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predicant>