

PREDICTING

Meaning: Predicting refers to the act of forecasting or estimating a future event or outcome based on analysis or data.

1. Predicting the weather accurately requires sophisticated models and extensive data.
2. Scientists are often faced with the challenge of predicting the outcomes of complex experiments.
3. She has a talent for predicting trends in fashion well before they become popular.
4. The ability of the stock market to rebound is often a matter of predicting investor behavior.
5. Predicting the results of the election has become increasingly difficult in today's polarized climate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predicting>