

PREDICTOR

Meaning: A predictor is a factor or indicator that suggests or forecasts a future outcome or condition.

1. The weather forecast is often seen as a reliable predictor of the upcoming conditions.
2. Research indicates that early academic performance can be a strong predictor of future success.
3. In the realm of medicine, certain biomarkers serve as important predictors for various diseases.
4. The stock market can be an unpredictable predictor of economic trends, often swayed by external factors.
5. Using historical data, scientists can develop models that act as predictors for climate change impacts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predictor>