

PREDILECTION

Meaning: Predilection: a preference or liking for something, often indicating a strong inclination towards it.

1. Her predilection for classical music made her an ideal candidate for the orchestra.
2. Despite his predilection for adventure, he decided to stay home for the weekend.
3. The artist's predilection for vibrant colors was evident in her latest collection.
4. She has a predilection for reading historical novels over contemporary fiction.
5. His predilection for spicy food often led to interesting dining experiences.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predilection>