

PREDOMINANT

Meaning: Predominant: being the most powerful, common, or influential element in a particular context or situation.

1. The predominant theme of the novel revolves around the struggles of identity.
2. In the debate, her arguments were the predominant influence on the final decision.
3. The predominant species in the forest are oak and pine, which create a unique ecosystem.
4. His predominant concern was ensuring the safety of his family during the storm.
5. Cultural traditions often play a predominant role in shaping community values and beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/predominant>