

PREEN

Meaning: To preen means to clean, arrange, or groom oneself or one's feathers, often with meticulous attention to detail.

1. Birds often preen their feathers to maintain their cleanliness and arrangement.
2. She spent the afternoon preening in front of the mirror, adjusting her outfit meticulously.
3. The cat would often preen itself after a long day of playing in the garden.
4. It's important for the stylist to preen the model's hair before the fashion show begins.
5. After a swim, the duck took a moment to preen its wet feathers under the sun.
6. Birds often preen their feathers to keep them clean and well-aligned.
7. She took her time to preen herself before the important meeting.
8. The cat would frequently preen its fur, ensuring it looked immaculate.
9. During the mating season, male birds preen more obsessively to attract potential partners.
10. After a long day at work, he liked to preen his appearance before heading out for the evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preen>