

PREFERABLENESS

Meaning: Preferableness refers to the quality or state of being more desirable or favorable than another option.

1. The preferableness of one option over another can significantly influence decision-making.
2. In many cases, the preferableness of the product was determined by its reliability and cost-effectiveness.
3. Experts often debate the preferableness of certain methodologies in their respective fields.
4. The preferableness of her plan was evident, as it addressed all concerns raised by the committee.
5. When comparing the two candidates, the preferableness of her experience became clear during the interview.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preferableness>