

PREFERENTIAL

Meaning: Preferential refers to favoring one party or option over others, often to provide advantages or benefits in a specific context.

1. The company implemented preferential hiring practices to promote diversity in the workplace.
2. During the negotiation, they sought preferential rates that would benefit their long-term partnership.
3. The local government provided preferential treatment to businesses that contribute to community development.
4. Students with exceptional academic records received preferential access to scholarship opportunities.
5. The airline offered preferential boarding to frequent flyers, allowing them to board ahead of others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preferential>