

PREJUDICIAL

Meaning: Prejudicial: causing harm or disadvantage, especially by fostering bias or discrimination against a particular group or individual.

1. The prejudicial remarks made during the debate were widely criticized by the audience.
2. Her prejudicial attitude towards certain groups hindered meaningful discussions on the topic.
3. The court ruled that the evidence presented was prejudicial and should not be considered.
4. Addressing prejudicial beliefs in the workplace is essential for fostering an inclusive environment.
5. He was concerned that the media coverage could have a prejudicial effect on the jury's decision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prejudicial>