

PREJUDICATIVE

Meaning: Prejudicative refers to remarks or assumptions that are biased or detrimental, potentially leading to unfair judgments or conclusions about someone or something.

1. The prejudicative remarks made during the meeting overshadowed the constructive feedback.
2. Her prejudicative assumptions about the new employee were quickly dispelled by his work ethic.
3. The court found that the evidence presented was prejudicative and not relevant to the case.
4. In discussions about community issues, prejudicative attitudes can hinder progress and understanding.
5. It is essential to address prejudicative beliefs in order to foster a more inclusive environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prejudicative>