

PRELIBATION

Meaning: Prelibation: a preliminary drink or refreshment served before a meal or event to stimulate the palate or enhance the experience.

1. The waiter offered a prelibation that set the tone for the exquisite meal to come.
2. As the guests mingled, a delightful prelibation was served to enhance the evening's festivities.
3. She savored the rich flavors of the prelibation, which perfectly complemented the main course.
4. During the tasting event, each prelibation was carefully curated to showcase the chef's creativity.
5. The chef insisted that a proper prelibation was essential for enjoying the full experience of the dinner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prelibation>