

PREMONITOR

Meaning: To premonitor means to anticipate or predict future events or changes before they occur.

1. The scientists decided to premonitor the environmental changes before implementing the new policy.
2. His ability to premonitor potential issues in the project made him an invaluable team member.
3. She used advanced software to premonitor the network for any signs of intrusion.
4. The technician was tasked with premonitoring the equipment to ensure everything was functioning correctly.
5. To improve safety, the team developed a system to premonitor conditions in the mine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/premonitor>