

PRENDER

Meaning: Prender (verb): To focus or concentrate one's attention on something.

1. He decided to prender his attention to the details of the project.
2. As a child, she loved to prender the stories her grandmother told by the fireplace.
3. To improve his skills, he needed to prender the basics of the craft first.
4. It's essential to prender the context before making any assumptions about the situation.
5. She made an effort to prender the emotions behind his words during their conversation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prender>