

PRENOMINATION

Meaning: Prenomination refers to the preliminary stage in the selection process where potential candidates are evaluated and discussed before official nominations are made.

1. The prenomination process is crucial for ensuring that candidates meet the necessary criteria.
2. During the prenomination phase, party members gather to discuss potential nominees and their qualifications.
3. She felt a sense of urgency as the prenomination deadline approached, knowing how competitive the race had become.
4. The committee's decision during prenomination would significantly influence the outcome of the upcoming election.
5. His strategy for prenomination involved extensive outreach to party leaders and grassroots supporters alike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/prenomination>