

PREOCULAR

Meaning: PREOCULAR: relating to the area or scales located in front of the eyes.

1. The doctor examined the preocular area for signs of irritation.
2. In some species, the preocular scales play a role in protecting the eyes.
3. The research focused on the preocular anatomy of various reptiles.
4. During the surgery, the surgeon carefully avoided damaging the preocular tissues.
5. The preocular region is crucial for understanding visual adaptations in animals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preocular>