

PREPARABLE

Meaning: Preparable: capable of being prepared or made ready, especially in a short amount of time.

1. The meal was so simple that it was almost entirely preparable in under thirty minutes.
2. With the right tools and ingredients, this dish is easily preparable for any home cook.
3. Many of the recipes in the cookbook are specifically designed to be preparable on a busy weekday.
4. The chef emphasized that even gourmet meals can be preparable with proper planning and organization.
5. Her focus on fresh ingredients made each dish not only delicious but also preparable with minimal effort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preparable>