

PREPARATOR

Meaning: A preparator is a person responsible for preparing, arranging, or restoring materials, objects, or specimens for experiments, exhibitions, or displays.

1. The preparator carefully arranged the materials needed for the experiment.
2. As a museum preparator, she meticulously restored the ancient artifacts for display.
3. His role as a preparator involved ensuring that all equipment was ready before the presentation.
4. The preparator's attention to detail made a significant difference in the quality of the final product.
5. In art conservation, the preparator plays a crucial role in preserving the integrity of the artwork.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/preparator>