

PRESBYTERIANISM

Meaning: Presbyterianism is a Protestant Christian denomination characterized by governance by elected elders and a strong emphasis on scripture and communal decision-making.

1. Presbyterianism emphasizes the governance of the church by elected elders.
2. The principles of Presbyterianism encourage a focus on scripture and communal decision-making.
3. In many regions, Presbyterianism has played a significant role in shaping local communities and social values.
4. The theological debates within Presbyterianism often revolve around issues of predestination and grace.
5. Many people are drawn to the rich traditions and practices of Presbyterianism throughout their spiritual journeys.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/presbyterianism>