

PRESENT

Meaning: Present (noun): a gift given to someone, often on a special occasion.

1. She was thrilled to receive a beautifully wrapped present on her birthday.
2. The teacher asked the students to present their projects in front of the class.
3. During the meeting, he made a strong case for the importance of being present in the moment.
4. After weeks of anticipation, the artist finally unveiled his latest present to the public.
5. He had a unique way of making everyone feel like their opinions were valued in the present discussion.
6. She gave a thoughtful presentation on climate change at the conference.
7. The gift was beautifully wrapped, making the present even more special.
8. He felt completely present during the meditation session, focused and at peace.
9. The teacher reminded us that being present in the moment is essential for learning.
10. During the holiday season, we often reflect on the importance of giving and receiving presents.
11. She received a beautiful necklace as a present for her birthday.
12. The teacher asked the students to present their projects to the class.
13. He was present at the meeting, but he didn't speak much.
14. The artist's latest exhibition is a present to the community, showcasing local talent.
15. It's important to be present in the moment and enjoy life as it unfolds.
16. She received a beautiful necklace as a birthday present.
17. The teacher asked the students to present their projects at the end of the week.
18. I was thrilled to be present at the concert of my favorite band.
19. His calm demeanor helped to present a reassuring image during the crisis.
20. They decided to present their proposal to the board of directors for approval.
21. She received a beautiful present for her birthday.
22. During the meeting, he made a compelling case for a new marketing strategy.

23. The gift was wrapped in colorful paper and tied with a bright ribbon.
24. The teacher asked the students to present their projects on climate change.
25. She received a beautiful necklace as a birthday present from her best friend.
26. During the meeting, he took a moment to present his innovative ideas to the team.
27. The present moment is often overlooked, yet it holds the key to happiness.
28. They decided to present their findings at the upcoming conference in New York.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/present>